Class Assembly

On Thursday morning we were joined by friends and family for St Bernadette's class assembly. The children shared their learning from the R.E. topic, 'Promises'. There was singing, dancing, story-telling, drama ~ it had it all! Thank you Mrs Lawrence, Mrs Walls and Mrs Williams for preparing and supporting the children.

Children In Need

Well done to Charlotte (St Peter) and the girls from St Joseph's who added to our fundraising total with an after school cake sale and sponsored silence. They raised a fantastic £200! Well done girls.

Street Champions!

Well done to Daisy and Florence O. for signing up for the Veolia Street Champion scheme. The scheme involves collecting litter from the streets and parks locally to help towards a cleaner environment. They have been out a few times a week and are very enthusiastic and keen to make a difference in our local area. If anyone else is interested in supporting the scheme, the link is <https://www.veolia.co.uk/southend/street-champions>

Sports Clothing

Now that the wintry weather has arrived we are encouraging the children to bring warm clothing for P.E. lessons. We ask that the children wear plain dark bottoms and either the school red fleece, which is available online at Tesco clothing, or a plain red/dark jumper.
