newsletter no. 512 ~11th October 2024

To our wonderful community,

What a sister – and what a star!

Super heroes can be any age and make all the difference and this is true of Jessica from St Francis Class. Her Mummy told us on Monday that Jessica showed her quick thinking and kindness. Her little brother got in the bath, put the plug in, turned on the hot tap and couldn't climb out. Jessica found him and quickly alerted mum who came to his rescue. Jessica, what a superstar you are – a definite Head Teacher Award for you this week!

New kids on the block!

On Wednesday, Mrs Sapsford and I had the privilege of watching and supporting our newest team, the rugby team play. It was an emerging event – for new teams – and we were able to bring 19 children, therefore we could field two teams. They were INCREDIBLE! Every player gave their all and there were some very tired children at the end of the tournament. One team remained unbeaten, whilst the other lost their final game 5-4; it was so close. An amazing number of tries were scored and I think we have carved out a new reputation for being great rugby players! Well done to:

Heidi, Amelie,
Rosie, Padme,
Lyla, Ruva,
Beatrice, Lily,
Albie, Freddie,
Folami, Henry,
George, Harry H,
Max, Vince,
Harry S., Elijah
& Jake

First football news!

Well done to year 5 & 6 football team who started their season last week, participating in the Jim Smith Memorial tournament. We celebrated a couple of wins, stayed focus during hard fought draws and kept going in the matches we lost. The team played so well and we are all very proud of them.

Lots more games to come and we know that we will go from strength to strength.

Well done to: Freddie, Albert, Elijah, George, Jake, Folami, Harry S and Henry.

Royal Albert Hall

Last Sunday, five of our Year 6 boys joined the Southend Boys Choir for the day and performed in Carmina Burana at the Royal Albert Hall. They have been rehearsing with Mr Humphrey from the Boys Choir since the summer term and joined 70 boys and about 300 other singers with the Royal Philharmonic Orchestra for the prestigious performance. Well done to Henry, Elijah, Harry H, Vince and Jake.

Artist of the Month - October

Artist of the Month for October is Anina. Anina created a beautiful skyline using consistent brushstrokes whilst amalgamating colours. After that, she created vivid houses from coloured paper and corrugated card which stood in front of the famous Brazilian landmark - Christ the Redeemer.

Birthdays

Congratulations to Beau and Mrs Halvey, both from St Francis class who are celebrating their birthday this week.
