Head Teacher's Award 3rd April 2020

Well done to all the children recognised for their achievements this week.

Ronnie W (St Francis) –for fantastic effort in completing lots of activities at home. He has demonstrated a vast range of knowledge in some very creative ways. Well done Ronnie!

Harry S. (St Therese) ~ for his enthusiasm and hard work throughout the week shown in all the photos and for still being a good, kind friend by encouraging others on the blog too. Great job Harry!

Joshua (St Elizabeth) ~ for his great enthusiasm for his number work at home, he has even tried to find the biggest number in the whole wide world! Joshua also contributed to our class April Fools Joke Blog with this great joke! What is a cat's favourite month? Pawgust!

Kundai (St Bernadette) ~ for giving us regular updates of her daily activities on our class blog. She always takes care with using punctuation and spelling in her blogging, and sounds like she is very busy with home learning. Well done Kundai!

Part of Assisi Catholic Trust limited by guarantee in the Diocese of Brentwood, registered in England and Wales.

Registered number 7696989.

Dylan (St Joseph) for being a fantastic class blogger this week; sharing life at home with a collection of photos and producing a wonderful animation of a volcano linking to our Home Learning Class Read.

Natalia- (St Anthony) Natalia has taken home learning in her stride. She has joined in enthusiastically with blogging, sharing all the fantastic things she has been getting up to including a fabulous tennis quiz, pillow forts, improving her fitness and marvellous maths work.
Thank you for being a superstar Natalia!

Michal (St Peter) – for excellent enthusiasm and focus when learning from home. He constructed his very own wooden bird house for his garden. Keep up the great work Michal.

MY WEEK FOR MONDAY

On Monday I done some work it was really fun I even wrote about what I done last week. After 30 min also I got a break It was a nice break. For my break I went out side on my bike I came back in to have a snack it was yummy . Then I done some work until lunch time we ate lunch at 12 o' clock we ate some rise with soup and beans it was good we done some extra work and we were finished for the day.

Head Teacher's Award From Last Week!

Well done to all the children recognised for their achievements last week. I was still on the ICT learning curve last week, so didn't paste their photos, but with my newly discovered skill set, I'm making up for lost time!

Ronnie C (St Francis) for going above and beyond with his home learning! A fantastic range of activities in only one week! What a superstar!

Blossom & Padme (St Therese) ~ for being brilliant bloggers and making outstanding contributions to the class blog in the first week.

Harry (St Elizabeth) – for his great effort in school before the start of our home learning week and he has continued to keep it up by taking part in many of the Purple Mash activities set for him!

Georgina (St Bernadette) ~ for her outstanding efforts in completing lots of brilliant work at home. She continuously keeps in touch with our class, with her regular blogs and has even had time to make Victorian ice-cream! Well done Georgina.

Logan (St Joseph) for excellent descriptive writing about a range of settings. Keep up the good work Logan!

Zofia (St Anthony) has engaged enthusiastically with all areas of the curriculum and has really embraced the change and challenge of learning at home. She has produced excellent English, Maths and Art and even dressed in her Victorian Day costume to celebrate the day we didn't quite get to have. Thank you for all your hard work Zofia!

Emily (St Peter) for her fantastic enthusiasm and engagement during the first week of home learning. You have completed an array of tasks to a high standard including a wonderful pointillism portrait of Emma Watson. Well done Emily.
